

Adorer Information Packet

Dear Adorer,

Thank you for answering “His Call”. The call from the Lord to adore His Real Presence in the Eucharist. By your affirmative answer you have become a member of a distinct group of people. People whose love for the Lord is expressed in an hour of adoration and powerful praise. By saying yes to Him, who invited you, you join the line of people that stretches through the centuries, from the stable in Bethlehem in the company of the angels, shepherds, and Magi through all of history to this day. This mystical union of ages and adoring souls has sustained the very heart of the Church.

Perpetual Adoration is the giving of your time to the Lord. For such a commitment, the graces and blessings that will be bestowed on you and your loved ones will be abundant in this life and beyond measure in the next.

Fellow adorer, we are aware of the busy schedule that you have and the commitments that life places on you. We are grateful that you have chosen to make the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus a priority in your life, and have made an Oasis for Him in the midst of your chaotic pace of life.

As a faithful Roman Catholic who is on the pilgrimage of life, a commitment like yours is a sign of how strong our Faith is, and our belief in the power of prayer, silence and adoration in the Presence of the Eucharistic Lord. This giving of your time will remind us all of how He, the Master, gives His all for us.

Perpetual Adoration will not only strengthen our parish family but it will help us to stay focused on the important events in our journey through life.

May He who is ever present, bless you, protect you, and may Our Most Holy Mother, Mary, under Her title of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, draw you ever closer to Her Son in His Real Presence in the Eucharist.

Thank you once again for answering “His Call”.
Adoremus Core Group

General Information For Each Assigned Adorer

1. Your commitment to adore is a blessing from the Lord.
2. Each time you adore you “must” sign-in.
It is important that each hour be covered.
The Blessed Sacrament must never be left alone.
( You are the committed Adorer and Guardian of the Eucharist at your hour.)
3. The procedure to follow when you cannot make it to the chapel at your assigned time:
  - a) Contact the people who are assigned to adore at the same hour you are. Let them know you will not be there. If you know there will be two Adult Adorers present you are covered.
  - b) If this fails you should try to get a substitute from Master list. ( attached )
  - c) If you cannot get a substitute you should contact Coordinator or any other member from the Adoremus Core Group. ( list attached )

( Please note: Prepare for your obligation to always be in the chapel at your assigned time by choosing someone to contact your Coordinator or any other Adorer in you hour should you suddenly be taken ill or called away for an unforeseen emergency.)

4. Become familiar with the Adorers who adore at your hour and on other days of the week You may find it necessary to switch days for some important reason during the year. You should be able to depend upon each other because of your valuable commitment to the Lord.
5. Read ! Read ! Read ! Increase your spiritual reading.
Pray ! Pray ! Pray ! For
The Pope, the Church
Our Priests, Our Pastor and Vocations
The Family and the Right to Life
Our Country and Our Leaders
SMM parishioners and those in need of physical or spiritual healing
And that which weighs heavily on your heart.
6. Encourage others to sign-up for adoration, be substitute Adorers or ... even to become occasional adorers.
7. Silent Adoration gives you alone time with Our Lord, listen .... He will speak to you.

Guidelines For Church Conduct

Respect for Our Lord is displayed in the following ways:

1. Genuflect upon entering the presence of the Lord.
2. Be mindful of proper, respectful attire.
3. No talking, maintain an austere reverence in the presence of Our Lord. If you need to talk to someone, please hold your conversation outside.
4. Adoration is a peaceful, private time for each adorer.
5. Never eat or drink in the church. Chewing gum or candy is not respectful either.
6. No CD, ipods or tape players and No cellular phones are to be used in the chapel. If you have a cell phone remember to turn it off or use silent mode.

Emergency Procedures

To All Adorers—

Remain Faithful !

If you should have any problems during your hour of adoration such as illness, or if the person that is to follow you in adoration does not show up, or if you sense something out of the ordinary going on*** Please use the phone*** ( hallway towards classrooms).

Eucharistic Adoration binder with emergency procedures and Adorer's phone numbers is on the top of ministry's box cabinet, closet on the left, next to phone.

Use phone in case of emergency or in event of one of the following:

- If you become sick during your hour or need advice, notify any other Adorer in the Church, if needed call the Coordinator or any Adoremus Core Group member. ( Please get Eucharistic Adoration binder inside ministry's closet for phone list )
- If the person that is to relieve you does not show up and you cannot stay for extra time, call someone for the hour following yours. If you can not reach next Adorer call Coordinator or any Adoremus Core Group Member.
- If an emergency of a serious nature arises ... call the appropriate emergency number 911. Fire Extinguisher are located – one each side of hallways as you come in, one in Sacristy.
- Be advised ... The phone is there to be used only for the security of Adoration, its Adorers and their function as Guardians of the Eucharist.

Conversations with God

You open the door to the adoration chapel and walk in. You have just stepped into the Real Presence, i.e., the presence of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in the fullness of His divine and human natures. This is Jesus Who was sent by the Father to redeem us. He is also our Teacher (Rabboni) who teaches us about the Father, the Holy Spirit, ourselves, and how to live our lives. He is the One Who is the origin of all truth. Indeed, He is Truth itself. He knows everything about us. And He loves us unconditionally. He is the source of all miraculous healings and cures. All we know about Him is what He has revealed to us.

The One Who has created everything that we see, hear, feel, smell and taste has humbled Himself to be present in the Tabernacle or in a Monstrance under the outward appearance of bread so that we can dare to approach His unequalled Magnificence. This is a mystery far beyond our comprehension! Nothing compares to the magnitude of this single act of His Divine and human Humility through which He offers Himself out of His Divine and human Love for us as He did on the Cross. He is The Real, True, Living Presence, body and blood, soul and divinity, waiting for you, in the adoration chapel.

Why do the people come here? For many reasons. But most have come before their Creator to build stone by stone and with His assistance a solid and enduring relationship with Him. For some it is a tremendous struggle until they realize that Jesus Himself provides the foundation, the stones and the grace to persevere. All that we are expected to supply is the labor of cooperation and self-surrender. The more diligent we are in our labor, the greater the structure, the greater the structure the greater the reward. What is the reward? It is a closer more intimate relationship with God. The closer we get, the greater our joy will be.

What kinds of labor are performed to build this relationship with God? We begin by offering, on a regular basis, an hour of our time; perhaps once a week to be in the Eucharistic Presence of the Lord and to do one or more of the following:

WORSHIP - We worship God through an act of our will when we decide to be in His Most Holy Presence. We also worship God through our physical positions as well as our prayers. When you enter a holy place, such as an adoration chapel dip your fingers in holy water and make a devout sign of the cross saying the words "In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." as you perform the physical act of making the sign of the cross - On your knees to pay God the respect He alone deserves. For the elderly or infirm, a bow or simple acknowledgement of His Presence will suffice to pay respect to their Creator. According to the fervor of your reaction to being in the Eucharistic Presence of our Lord and Savior, a bow from the kneeling position or complete prostration, when room permits, is a most pleasing acknowledgement to the Presence of the Supreme Being.

We also worship God by reading the many beautiful prayers of praise contained in the Book of Psalms. Other prayers that pay homage to God may be found in your favorite prayer book. In addition, we may worship Our Lord by our own spontaneous prayers that come from the heart as a reaction to the Greatness of God. These are genuine acts of praise meant for Him alone.

TEMPORAL PETITIONS - When family, friends, acquaintances or we ourselves need or want things that are of this world such as:

- a cure for illness like from physical and mental diseases,
- a healing like from deformities or accidents,
- a necessity like a job, food, clothing, shelter, etc.,
- a favor like a sunny day, rain, house, car, test, safe trip, etc.,
- a holy cause like vocations to the religious life, an end to abortions, the intentions of the Holy Father, etc.,
- a special want for a heart's desire like to meet a mate, make a decision, etc.,
- help to overcome a bad habit

then we prayerfully Implore Our Lord and ask for what we want, even if it takes a miracle, but only if it is God's Will that our request be answered.

SPIRITUAL PETITIONS - Not only do we have a body but we also have a soul which needs spiritual nourishment to achieve its ultimate goal, Heaven and the Beatific Vision. Petition God to raise you to the level of holiness He has waiting for you and you alone. Plead with Him to teach you how to know, love and serve Him. Ask for an increase in graces in all the virtues so that you may imitate Our Blessed Mother in the perfection in which she practiced them. Call upon the angels and saints to intercede before the Throne of God for ourselves and others.

Pray for the sick, the dying and those who are homeless or in prison to keep Satan from snatching them away in their moments of despair and confusion. Pray for the spiritual well-being of family, friends, acquaintances and even strangers openly living in mortal sin who will surely go to Hell without your petitions to God on their behalf. Never forget to include the poor souls in Purgatory in your offering of prayers to God. They, in turn, will become petitioners for you. When you earnestly plead for others, you are twice blest for God not only hears the invocation but He also hears the voice of the supplicant.

THANKSGIVING - Everything is a good that comes from God and belongs to God. The roads, cars, streetlights, family, friends, clothes, food, trees, grass, sky, mountains, you name it, God created it. Oh yes! So and so is written as the inventor of this gadget or that machine but every inventor was given the talent to invent from God.

We owe thanks to God for everything we have and enjoy all day long when we truly comprehend this, we will realize our arrogance for thoughts we have about "our accomplishments" or "our possessions". For in truth we are nothing and owe all that we are and have to God and God alone. Since there is nothing we have that is ours, there is no way we can possibly repay Our Lord for His generosity. However we can and should, at the very least, acknowledge His gifts to us and demonstrate our gratitude through prayers of thanksgiving for the many gifts we receive in abundance daily from Him.

We even need to be thankful for the crosses God sends to us. It is our obligation to accept our crosses because they are God's Holy Will for us. They are visible signs of His love that He gives to each of us.

These sufferings, united to Christ, are our opportunities to grow in holiness. How many times have we heard from the greatest of saints about the enormous value of suffering. Why so? Because through our sufferings we grow ever closer to God. And the closer we get to God, the greater our joy will be for all eternity. As Jesus accepted His Father's Will and the cup of suffering in the garden so should we. (Matthew 26:39).

FORGIVENESS - Appeal to God's Divine Mercy. In the "Diary" of St. Faustina, Jesus says; "...I am Love and Mercy itself. (1074) ... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. (699) ... My mercy is greater than your sins and those of the entire world. (1485) ... I let my Sacred Heart be pierced with a lance, thus opening wide the source of mercy for you. Come, then, with trust to draw graces from this fountain. I never reject a contrite heart. (1485)... The greater the sinner, the greater the right he has to My mercy. (723)".

When we ask for forgiveness and mercy, we are told by Jesus that we have to forgive and be merciful to others, "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." (Matthew 6:14-15). Jesus tells us to forgive without limit when He told Peter he must forgive His brother, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven." (Matthew 18:21).

God wants us to approach His Divine Mercy and obtain sacramental forgiveness by going to Confession to reconcile our relationship with Him. It is through the sacrament of reconciliation that we receive God's forgiveness for our sins as well as an abundance of graces to help us to maintain our relationship with Him. When we lose God, we lose our joy.

REPARATION - Many horrible sins are committed against Jesus Christ who offered Himself as a victim for the reparation of sins. Sins of blasphemies at war with the Holy Name, invalid and graceless Holy Communions, sacrileges that oppose and profane the Sacred Host, infidelity and unfaithfulness of and abuse toward His love for us, disobedience to His Holy Laws, and hostile contempt towards His Holy Presence. Although God in His Divine Mercy forgives us our sins, we still have to repair for whatever damage those sins may have caused. We need to make amends for the wrongs or injuries committed against God. We do this through prayer, penance and sacrifice.

OFFERING & SACRIFICE - When the heart is moved with gratitude, we are prompted to respond in ways that we know are pleasing to God. It becomes easy to practice the gift of charity because He Who is Almighty has done something great for me and I feel His Love yet I am not worthy of it. Let me make a personal offering of my time or talents, or money to someone less fortunate. Let me make a sacrifice of something which I sense has value, and never thought I could live without. Let me reach out and touch someone because I have been touched and I know I will never be the same. Like Mother Teresa, let me do something beautiful for God. Physical actions united to Christ and performed for the love of God are prayer.

TESTIMONIALS - God is a living God. He is here today physically present, body and blood, soul and divinity, in the Holy Eucharist. This is the same God who walked among the people 2000 years ago and performed miracles, cured the sick, healed the blind and lame, cast out demons, forgave sins and taught people how to live their lives. He is still doing the same things today.

People committed to adoration found themselves healed spiritually or physically or their lives were visibly improved in some manner or another. All they know is they needed something, they prayed to God for it and received it. These are the people who will stand there and tell you about the goodness of the Lord. They are ready to proclaim what has happened to them to anyone who is willing to listen. Like the one leper out of the ten that Our Lord cured (Luke 17:12-19), these people not only came back to give thanks to the Lord but they are ready and willing to proclaim it to the world. By their testimonies, their faith increases not only for themselves but for those who see and hear them.

SILENCE - We pay homage to God when we practice silence in His Presence. It is probably difficult for most of us to allow silence to take over, to "just be". To pay no attention to our sense of sight, hearing and smell, to allow no internal words to surface, to not even have a thought, to just sit or kneel before the monstrance and wait, preferably with our eyes closed. It is in the glow of this silence that God speaks to our heart. There are no words to describe the communication which takes place in our inner being when we experience it, we know the value of silence. We feel a wonderful closeness to Him whom we love. We sense peace. It is not necessary to fill our time before the King of Kings with constant prayer. It is considered adoration when we care enough to come into the chapel just to be with Him. Simply being consciously in the presence of God is a form of prayer.

CONTEMPLATION - For a long time, contemplation was considered to belong to the domain of those in religious life, especially for the monks and cloistered orders. Not any more. Contemplation is for all of us who seek a closer, more personal relationship with Jesus. When you diligently seek to stay in the state of grace through the frequent reception of the sacraments of reconciliation and communion, you become more disciplined, more faithful to your conversations with God. Your prayer life will gradually deepen whenever you enter into contemplation. Always ask Jesus to help you. Start with whatever causes you to focus on God. It could be a holy image, a favorite prayer, or maybe a reading from a spiritual book. Place yourself in a state of humility. Abandon the world around you. Empty yourself of ego and all that identifies you with the world. Dismiss your cares and charges and yield your will entirely to Him. Be dependent upon Him and open your heart wide to wait for the Spirit of the Lord to come to you. God initiates the moment. When it arrives you will want it to last an eternity. You will return often to contemplation, to the joy of the closeness to God in prayer.

From here on, what you started to build stone by stone gradually takes on the shape and form of a beautiful structure. By your perseverance and labor you have bridged the gap between Heaven and earth. Contemplation has elevated you into a meaningful relationship with God.

When we leave the adoration chapel, we are to carry the joy of our relationship with God to everyone we meet. We are expected to evangelize, to speak to everyone about God. He wants us to act as His representative on earth so that others are able to find Him through us. It is through our deeds of corporal and spiritual works of mercy that others will discover God. Then in return, we too will begin to see God in others.

Pray for those who walk away from the challenge to develop a relationship with God.

Corporal Works of Mercy

Feed the hungry
Give drink to the thirsty
Clothe the naked
Shelter the homeless
Comfort the imprisoned
Visit the sick
Bury the dead

Spiritual Works of Mercy

Admonish sinners
Instruct the uninformed
Counsel the doubtful
Comfort the sorrowful
Be patient with those in error
Forgive offenses
Pray for the living and the dead
