Keynote Speakers

English Keynote: Sharing The Joy of Love (IAC)
9:30 am in the Church Sanctuary

Lauri Przybysz is President-elect of the National Association of Family Life Ministers. She received the Doctor of Ministry in Pastoral Ministry at the Catholic University of America in 2012, specializing in marriage and family enrichment. She is Education Director of Catholics for Family Peace in the Consortium for Catholic Social Teaching at CUA's National Catholic School of Social Service. With her husband, John, Lauri is on the Board of Directors of the Christian Family Movement-USA, part of an international confederation of Catholic life movements that promote missionary discipleship. The Przybyszs have spoken on encouraging "the Church in the home" at the Pontifical Council on the Family in Rome, and at family life conferences in the U.S., Europe, Latin America, and India. Her articles on marriage and family spirituality appear on the USCCB website www.foryourmarriage.org. Dr. Przybysz has six children and 21 grandchildren.

Keynote: Pope Francis' apostolic exhortation, "The Joy of Love" (Amoris Laetitia) highlights how God's grace is available in the daily blessings and challenges of family life. We will explore how the constant teaching of the Catholic Church guides and encourages parents and catechists to work patiently together to pass on a vibrant, active faith to the next generation and witness to Christ in their homes, in the parish, and in the world.

Sponsored by RCL Benziger

Orador Principal: Compartiendo La Alegría del Amor (IAC)
9:30 am en el Salón Parroquial

Dr. Francisco Castillo, editor principal y especialista multicultural, es miembro de la Academia de Teólogos Católicos Hispánicos de los Estados Unidos, y del Instituto Nacional Hispano de Liturgia. Sus intereses profesionales incluyen: la enseñanza social católica, la estética teológica y litúrgica, la teología de la liberación, y la teología latina/hispana de los Estados Unidos, la religión y el cine y la identidad cultural. Además es poeta y escritor. Vive en el sur de la Florida con su esposa e hijo.

Presentador Principal: La exhortación apostólica del Papa Francisco, "La alegría del amor" (Amoris Laetitia) resalta cómo la gracia de Dios que está en todas las bendiciones que recibimos a diario y en los retos de la vida familiar." Exploraremos cómo las enseñanzas constantes de la Iglesia Católica guían y animan a los padres de familia y catequistas a trabajar juntos pacientemente para transmitir una fe activa y vibrante a las siguientes generaciones y a ser testigos de Cristo en sus hogares, sus parroquias y en el mundo.

SESSION I / ENGLISH • 10:25 — 11:25 a.m.

1A—Straddling Between Two Cultures

Part 1 of 2—Dawn Oparah

This interactive workshop examines some of the challenges of being from one culture and living in another and the impact on both parents and children. It provides an opportunity to explore issues around school, pop culture, dress, social media, technology, language, values, beliefs, norms, and communication. Participants will walk away with tips on how families can navigate the challenges in a healthy safe way. (IALM)

2—Building a Culture of Peace at Home—

Dr. Lauri Przybysz

We will identify which behaviors help us live peacefully like the Holy Family and which behaviors get in the way of living peacefully, and which behaviors we need to overcome, with God's grace. Learn key strategies for promoting loving relationships and practice some effective tools for family communication and conflict resolution. (IALM)

3—Developmental Assets: Raising Children of Character—Holly McBryer

In this workshop, parents and caregivers will learn about the primary stages of development and the core skills needed to help children become well-adjusted, responsible adults. Strategies and practical methods for cultivating resiliency, empathy, and personal responsibility will be discussed. (IALM)

4—"Surviving and Thriving Through the Challenges of Single Parenting" —Gretchen Peacock (IALM)

5—Risky Behaviors in Adolescence: Gangs, Alcohol and Drugs—Sgt. McKay

This work shop will let adults know what to look for as far as gangs, drug and alcohol use are concerned and risk factors for young persons. It will also cover how youth join gangs, why they join gangs and the legal definition of a gang. (IALM)

SESSION II / ENGLISH • 11:35 — 12:35 p.m.

1B—Straddling Between Two Cultures

Part 2 of 2—Dawn Oparah

6—The Works of Mercy Family Style— Dr. Lauri Przybysz

Catholic tradition defines the actions by which we come to the physical and spiritual aid of our neighbors as the Works of Mercy – and our family members are our closest neighbors. Explore ways to inspire families to put God's mercy into practice in the home, parish, and wider society. (IAC)

7—How Busy is Too Busy?—Mary Plant

Mary Plant shares her story of how her parents helped her keep her priorities straight all while rigorously training and ultimately achieving the highest level of athletic success. While training and competing dominated her time, Mary's parents never allowed her to believe swimming was more important than developing her spiritual-side and practicing her Catholic faith. Mary credits her faith with helping her cope with her swimming career's successes and failures with humility and grace. Just as important, Mary credits her faith for ultimately enabling her to make the tough transition to "real life". (IAC)

8—Grandparents: Second String Tag Team—Barb Nichols

Grandparents - faith formers of their grandchildren. Grandparents as the family historians. Grandparent's prayers are strong and powerful. "Grandfather is twice a father and grandmother is twice a mother." (IAC)

9—Social Media and Apps: What Every Parent Needs to Know—Cpl. Monica Lacourly

This workshop will educate parents/teachers of the latest social sites and apps teenagers frequent, how they hide inappropriate pictures, sexting, and legal consequences. (IALM)

SESIÓN I / ESPAÑOL • 10:25 — 11:25 a.m.

18A—Relaciones Familiares Parte 1 de 2— Luis Guzmán

Relación de la pareja, de los padres con los hijos y los hijos con los padres, la relación entre hermanos, con los abuelos, y la familia extendida. (IAC)

19—Comunicación y el Vacío Cultural—Francisco Castillo

Esta presentación es para conocer la necesidad de establecer buenos métodos de comunicación entre padres e hijos, dentro del contexto de la cultura de los Estados Unidos. Se enfocará en realidades biculturales y bilingües de la primera, segunda y tercera generación hispana-estadounidense/latinos, así como los emigrantes recientes y las generación 1.5. (IALM)

20—Los Medios Sociales y Sus Aplicaciones: Lo Que Cada Padre Debe Conocer— Cpl Mónica Lacourly

Esta clase ayudará a los padres y maestros sobre los medios sociales y aplicaciones más utilizadas por los adolescentes, cómo ellos esconden imágenes inapropiadas, sexting, y consecuencias legales. (IALM)

SESIÓN II / ESPAÑOL • 11:35 — 12:35 p.m.

18B—Relaciones Familiares Parte 2 de 2— Luis Guzmán

(IAC)

21—El Tamaño Único No es Para Todos: Impactando la Juventud Católica Hispana — Francisco Castillo

Este taller presentará las diferentes necesidades de los jóvenes hispanos y como los padres y los catequistas pueden afrontar estas necesidades. (IALM)

22—Quinceañeras—Victoria Bradford

El Taller explorará la celebración del sacramental de Fe de la Quinceañera, tiene por objeto el conocimiento de sí misma, conocimiento de la Fe, evangelización, una buena relación y comunicación dentro la familia. Reconociendo a Jesús como el centro de la celebración en la Misa de Acción de Gracias y en ayudar a la joven para encontrar la mejor comunicación con sus padres y la familia. (IALM)

SESSION III / ENGLISH • 1:30 — 2:30 p.m.

10—Attending to Your Marriage—Michael and Geneva Tigue

Marriage is the #1 contributor to happiness (or sadness) for most people. As such, it makes a lot of sense to make sure your marriage is fantastic. This workshop will cover topics such as personal improvement (for each other), asking for changes from each other, aligning goals, financial concerns, enjoying time together, fun stories, NFP, and more. (IAC)

11—Families: People of Prayer—Pixie Smith

Is your family prayer-filled? If not, why not? Together, we will discover how to make prayer the heart of every household. (IALM)

12—Parent—Child Relationship—Allison Rentz

The parent/child relationship is essential in child development. Emotional needs are just as important as physical needs and safety needs. Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs will be reviewed and discussed in how this relates to the parent/child relationship. Strategies in how to cultivate a healthy relationship will also be discussed. (IALM)

13—Learning Difficulties in the 21st Century Child—Ellie Wood

Learning disabilities have been dubbed "the invisible handicap" and when children with learning differences experience trouble learning, it is often mistaken for laziness or inattention. Unfortunately, responding to the problem in this manner often exacerbates it. This workshop will discuss what learning disabilities really are and how to move forward if you think your child is struggling with learning difficulties. Includes: ADHD, Dyslexia, and Processing Disorders. (IALM)

14A—Parenting Teens

Part 1 of 2—Carol Gossett

The ins and outs of parenting teens. (IALM)

SESSION IV / ENGLISH • 2:40 — 3:40 p.m.

15—Human Sexuality and the Church—Brother Colton Rodgers

This workshop presentation will focus primarily upon the necessary harmony, which is inherent between the mind, body, and spirit. While drawing upon such elements as morality, ethics, and science, the workshop is intended to foster a greater understanding of the gift of Human Sexuality within the holistic person. Together, the presenter and viewers will consider such topics as: Gender vs. Sexuality, A Gender Oriented Society, The Possible Conditioning of Gender, as well as a multitude of other theories and beliefs. (IAT2)

16—Faith at Home—Pixie Smith

Your home is a sacred and holy place. Let's affirm what we are already doing as faithful followers of Christ and then build on that foundation. (IAC or IALM)

17—Who's calling?...—Maggie Rousseau

In December 1990 the Rousseau family opened their door to a stranger. And approximately nine months after that visit, their son Christopher was born with a very rare terminal illness causing multiple/severe disabilities. Thus began their SPECIAL journey. Maggie will share this story and others which she believes highlight God's plan for the Disabilities Ministry: focusing on sacraments and faith formation; liturgy participation; and belonging for individuals and families living with disabilities in our parish communities. (Spanish translation is available for this session). (IAC)

14B—Parenting Teens (Open Forum Discussion)

Part 2 of 2—Carol Gossett (IALM)

SESIÓN III / ESPAÑOL • 1:30 — 2:30 p.m.
